

Welcome to our newsletter 22 September 2023

Headteacher Message

It has been a wonderful week in school. I am so proud to have the privilege of leading such an amazing team and working with your children. The children really demonstrated our school mission this week following Jesus in our living and learning. Thank you to everyone who joined us for the Year 6 Faith in Action breakfast. It was lovely to see so many of our families join us. Cash donations will be sent to CAFOD. Thank you for your food donations, we are still collecting over the next few weeks. We cannot wait for our author visit next Tuesday when we welcome Adam Bushnell into school.

Have a lovely weekend with your families. Mrs Nealings

Social Media

We are in the process of launching a new school website. We hope that this will be easier for parents and visitors to find information. Hopefully this will be in the next few weeks.

As a result, we have needed to move our social media channels to Instagram and Facebook as a way of celebrating and sharing what is happening in school on a weekly basis.

Please join us on Facebook or Instagram by searching for St Charles' Catholic Primary School. These pages will replace the class blogs on the website.

Ofsted

This week we had an ungraded inspection on Tuesday and Wednesday to see if our school remains a good school. It will be a few weeks before the letter is published and I look forward to sharing it with you all when it arrives.

The children and staff were incredible and I am extremely proud of them all. Thank you to governors, parents and everyone who took the time to share the wonderful things that happen in St Charles' with the inspector.

Thank you for your continued support.

Book Swap Shed

Thank you for your donations of books for our book swap shed to celebrate recycling week. We hope you enjoy reading the books with your children.
