

Antibullying week newsletter 17 November 2023

Headteacher Message

Thank you to Mr Gray, RSHE leader, for leading our Antibullying assembly on Monday. The theme was all about types of bullying and who the children can speak out to in school.

Mr Tolan from Clennell Education Solutions visited school this week. He led workshops for KS1 and 2 about antibullying and sporting behaviours.

This video was shared with the children. Anti-Bullying Week 2023: Make A Noise - Official Primary School film - YouTube

CLEVER NEVER GOES

Clever Never Goes

Please read the parent information leaflet attached that shares the 'Clever Never Goes' message that children have listened to this week.

NSPCC

Children have been listening to the NSPCC messages about managing anxiety at home.

Bullying

Our definition of bullying (anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk)

Always inform school if your child thinks they are being bullied and encourage them to come and speak to a trusted adult or place a message in the emotions box in their classroom or the school office.

"Together we follow Jesus in our living and learning" Ordinary time "People who see you at your best will thank God" Matthew 6:16

Bullying Year 5 have lots to say about bullying!

Children in Need

Thank you so much for all of your sponsorship money after the children have completed their BearPee challenge. We have raised approximately £1000 so far.

Class Celebration of the Word

Thank you to all of the families who have joined us to pray this week and for your feedback. Thank you to all of the children for planning these celebrations.
